

Tennessee Alliance of Recovery Residences

Affiliate Benefits

1. Promote accountability, respectability and recognition.
2. Participate in a rich exchange of knowledge and experience with like-minded professionals.
3. Tap into a wealth of wisdom as we envision our future and value our past.
4. Become inspired and energized by new ideas grounded in rich tradition and immersed in the spirit of recovery.
5. Learn how to design and operate quality recovery environments from those who are living it.
6. Experience the fellowship of like-minded professionals grounded in the spiritual principles of the 12 Steps
7. Participate in peer-oriented conferences.
8. Receive the Affiliate directory.
9. Further validate the quality of your programs and services through participation in Program Standards.
10. Promote the quality of your staff through participation.
11. Have name recognition appropriate for judicial system, treatment center and out of state referrals.
13. Have access to a variety of educational materials related to program development and service enhancements.
14. Member homes enjoy a positive reputation as quality housing providers. Member homes are known to have met the requirements set for an Affiliate. The quality of member homes is assured through regular inspections. Member operators sign a code of ethics governing conduct toward each other and their residents.
15. Member homes stand out from non-member homes, which are not governed by any set standard of quality. Various legal jurisdiction and service providers are beginning to recognize the difference in referring clients to homes.

