

Tennessee Alliance of Recovery Residences

Affiliate Benefits

1. Promote accountability through years of experience, know-how and heritage in the recovery residence field.
2. Participate in a rich exchange of knowledge and experience with like-minded professionals.
3. Tap into a wealth of wisdom as we envision our future and value our past.
4. Become inspired and energized by new ideas grounded in rich tradition and immersed in the spirit of recovery.
5. Learn how to design and operate quality recovery environments from those who are living it.
6. Experience the fellowship of like-minded professionals grounded in the spiritual principles.
7. Participate in the annual peer-oriented NARR conference training and education conference.
8. TN-ARR training and education directly impacting Tennessee.
9. Listing in the affiliate directory TN-ARR/NARR
10. Further validate the quality of your programs and services through affiliate participation in TN-ARR/NARR Program Standards and Ethics
11. Promote the quality of your staff through participation in TN-ARR/NARR trainings.
13. Have access to a variety of educational materials related to program development and service enhancements.
14. Empower individuals, families and referral agent choices by recognizing certified recovery residences.
15. Promote resident's rights have resource and process by grievances
16. Offer affiliates a blueprint to best practices and the ability to legitimize themselves in the marketplace
17. Encourage transparency open to appropriate stakeholders.
18. A voice in current affairs that impact Recovery Housing Stakeholders in your municipalities, statewide and nationally .

