

Tennessee Alliance of Recovery Residences

Affiliate Requirements

The Tennessee Alliance of Recovery Residences will identify your house as healthy, safe, well-managed and ethical. The Tennessee Alliance of Recovery Residences is an affiliate alliance for quality residences, once you have met all requirements, your house(s) will be placed on the referral list on our website.

Requirements:

1. Your recovery residence is an alcohol and drug free environment.
2. Your recovery residence accepts and accommodates persons recovering from addiction with or without co-occurring mental health disorders.
3. Your recovery residence requires applicants to commit to and remain involved in an active program of recovery of their design and choice.
4. Sign and abide by the Alliance Code of Ethics.
5. Attend Alliance board meetings.
6. Pass an onsite inspection and continue to maintain clean and organized residences.
7. Your recovery residence(s) has been reviewed and approved by an Alliance leader.